¹ Therefore, holy brothers, you who share in a heavenly calling, consider Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession, ² who was faithful to him who appointed him, just as Moses also was faithful in all God's house. ³ For Jesus has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses—as much more glory as the builder of a house has more honor than the house itself.

- 4 (For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God.)
- 5 Now Moses was faithful in all God's house as a servant, to testify to the things that were to be spoken later...

THEREFORE...

THEREFORE...
CONSIDER JESÜS!

What difference
does this make in
your own life and in
the life of His Church?

What difference
does this make in
your own life and in
the life of His Church?

How should the
Jesus Way of Being
impact and effect
your way of being?

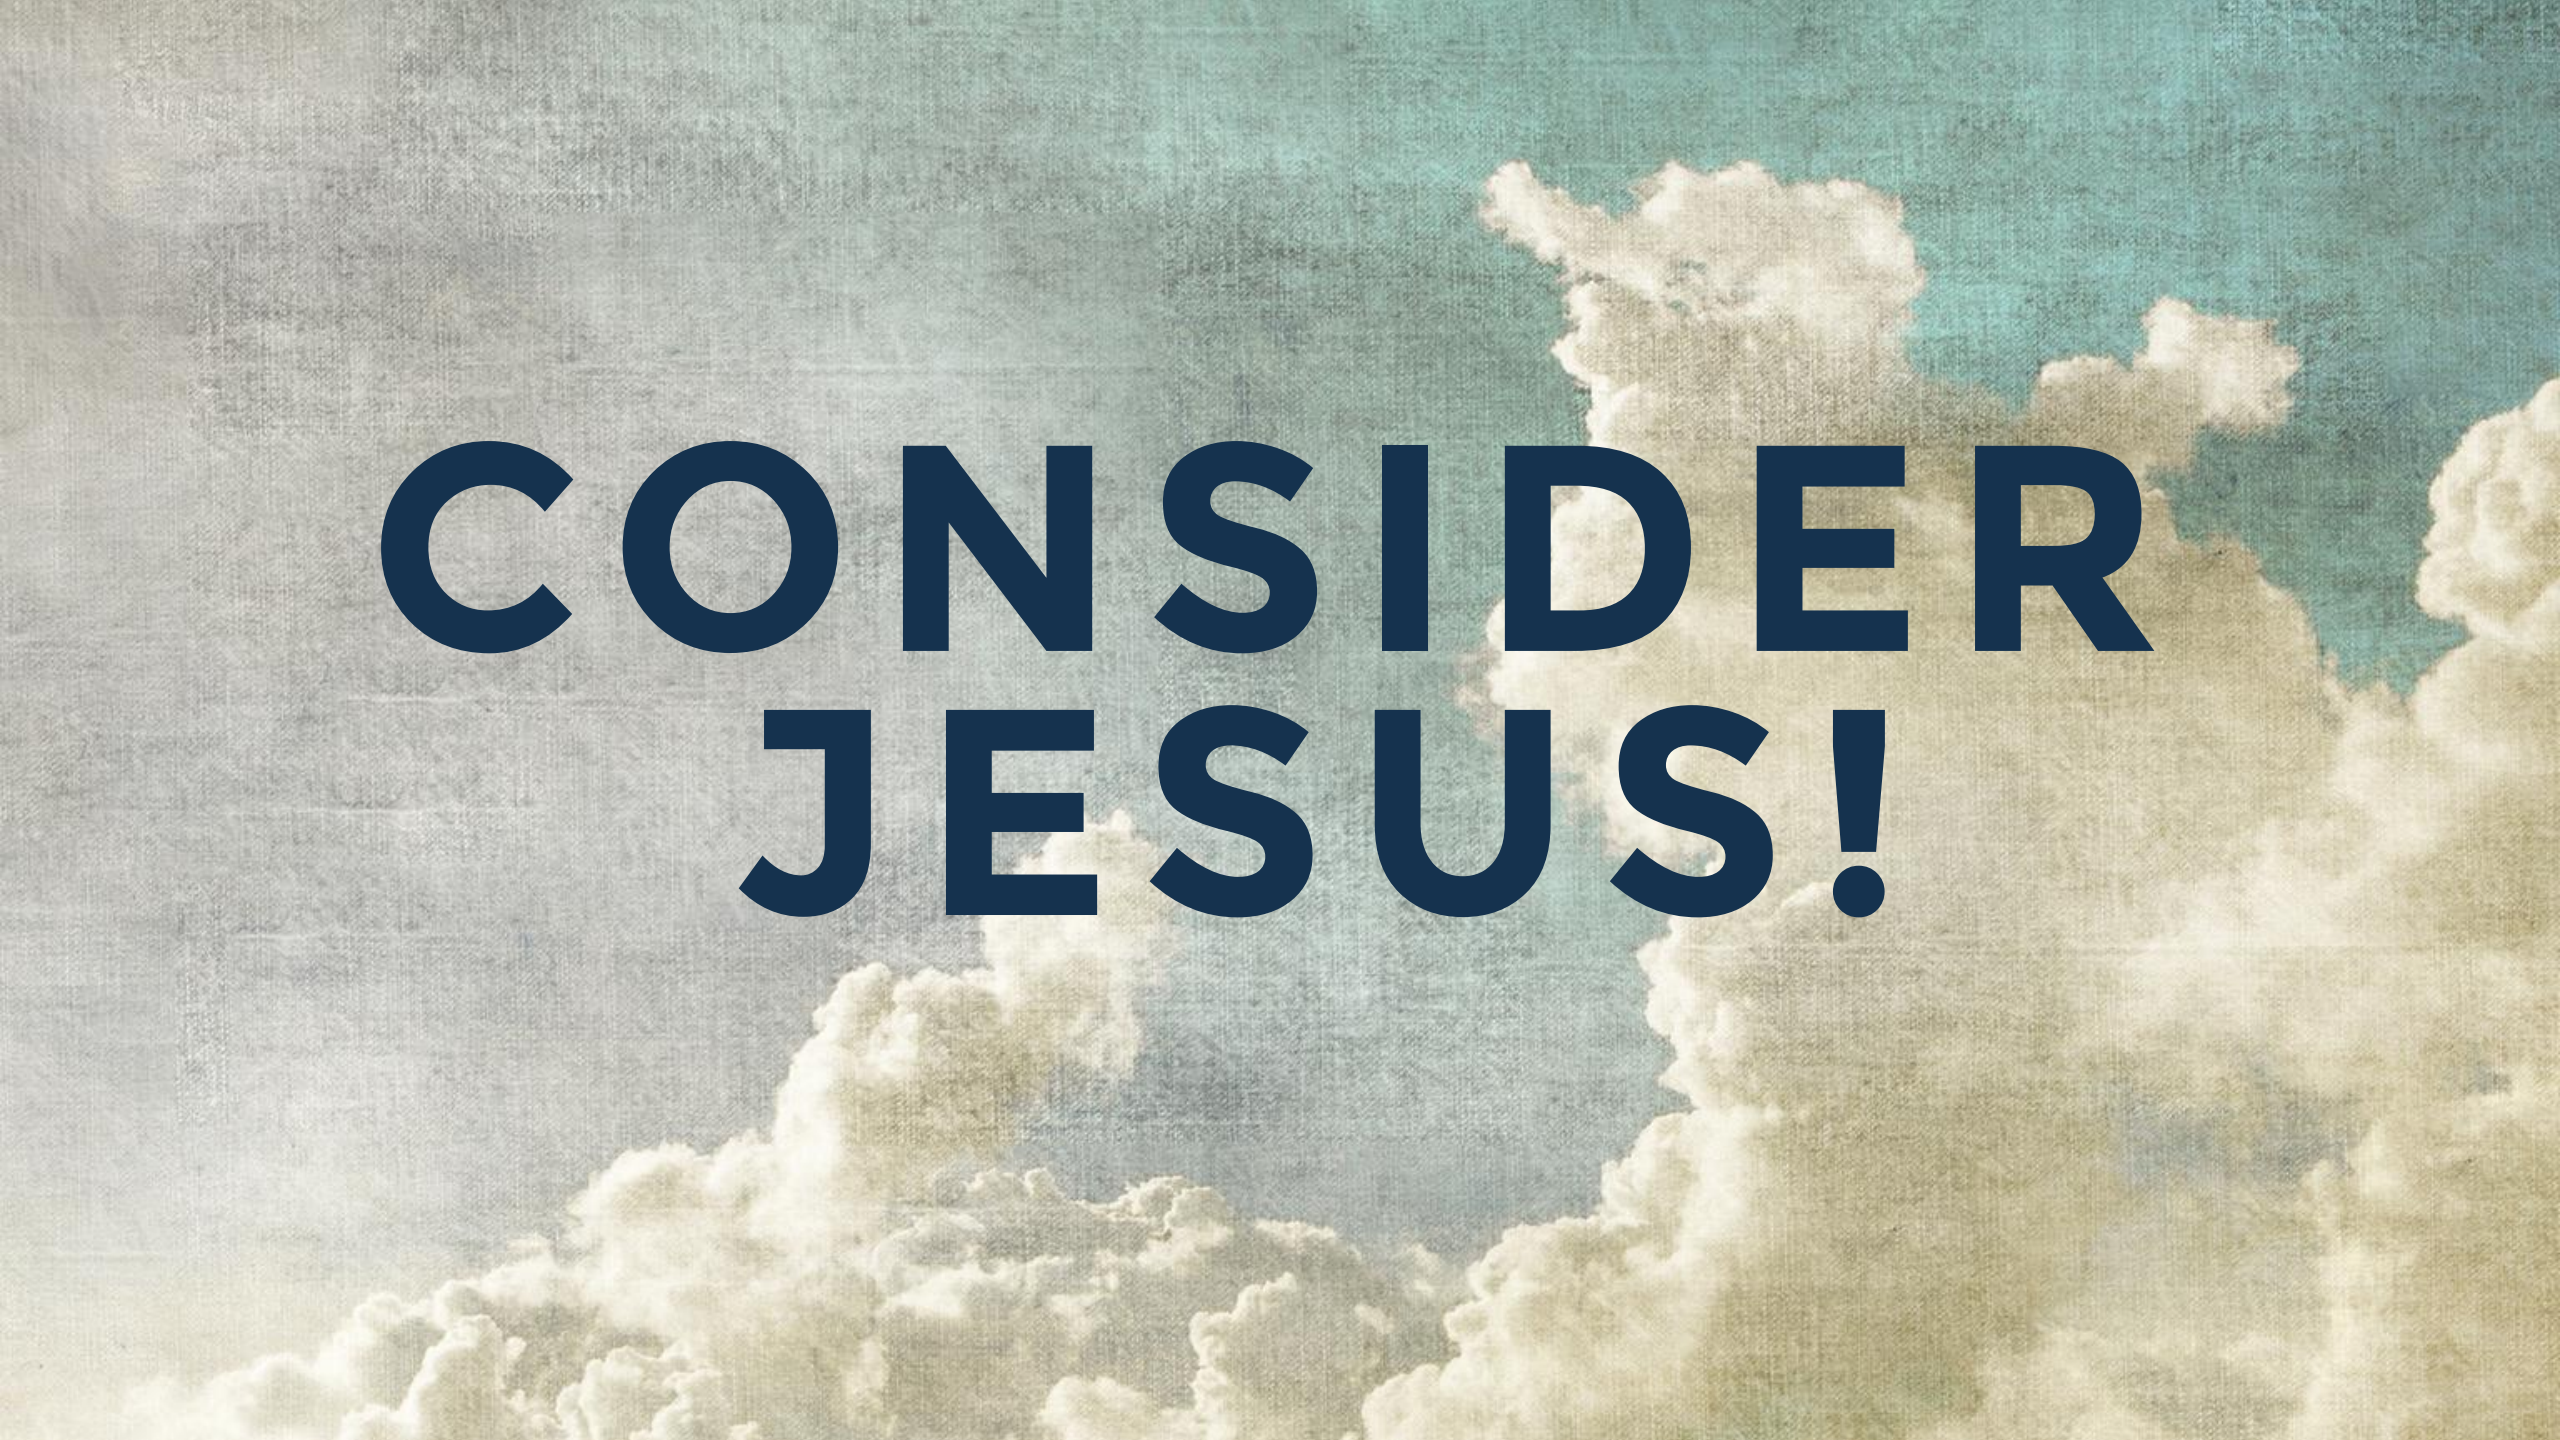

8 Indeed, I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ...

10 that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death...

And this, so that I may know Him [experientially, becoming more thoroughly acquainted with Him, understanding the remarkable wonders of His Person more completely]

and [in that same way experience]
the power of His resurrection [which overflows and is active in believers], and [that I may share]
the fellowship of His sufferings,

by being continually conformed [inwardly into His likeness even]
to His death [dying as He did]...

CONSIDER
JESUS!

Jesus is...
^{2b} the heir of all things,
through whom also God created the world. ³ He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature. He upholds the universe by the word of his power. He is seated at the right hand of the Father.

HEBREWS 1:2b-3

The prophet Isaiah tells us Jesus
...was oppressed, and he was afflicted,
yet he opened not his mouth;
like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he opened not his mouth.

⁵ Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus,
⁶ who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped,
⁷ but emptied himself,

PHILIPPIANS 2:5-8

by taking the form of
a servant, being born
in the likeness of men.
⁸ And being found in
human form, he humbled
himself by becoming
obedient to the point
of death, even death
on a cross.

PHILIPPIANS 2:5-8

8b Now in putting everything in subjection to him, he left nothing outside his control.

9b Jesus, crowned with glory and honor because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone.

HEBREWS 2:8b, 9b

14 Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession.
15 For we do not have a high priest

who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who
in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin.

16 Let us then with confidence
draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

⁸ Although he was a son,
he learned obedience
through what he suffered.
⁹ And being made perfect,
he became the source
of eternal salvation
to all who obey him...

who are being tempted.

He is able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

HEBREWS 7:25

He is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance.

1 JOHN

15 He is the image of the invisible
God, the firstborn of all creation.
16 For by him all things were created,
in heaven and on earth,
visible and invisible,
whether thrones or dominions

or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him.

¹⁷ And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together.

¹⁸ And he is the head of the body, the church.
