PART ONE · THE ARRIVAL OF HOPE

Sundays, DEC 7-28 · 9AM | 11AM · In Person & Online

What if God wants to deepen our faith by showing each of us Jesus' compassion, power, and presence in new ways—right now?

What would happen if we spent the next 4 months immersing ourselves in the life of Jesus—
listening, watching, slowing down, and letting Him speak?

Is it possible that a study of Luke's Gospel will reveal a part of God's heart that we've missed or forgotten?

PART ONE - THE ARRIVAL OF HOPE

LUKE I:I-4

¹ Inasmuch as many have undertaken to compile a narrative of the things that have been accomplished among us, ² just as those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word have delivered them to us,

LUKE I:I-4

³ it seemed good to me also, having followed all things closely for some time past, to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus, ⁴ that you may have certainty concerning the things you have been taught.

THEOPHILUS

/ thē-ō'-fəl-ŭs" / (Ancient Greek Θεόφιλος)

“Lover of God”

or

“Friend of God”

LUKE 1:3-4

³ it seemed good to me also, having followed all things closely for some time past, to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Friend of God, ⁴ that you may have certainty concerning the things you have been taught.

The story of Jesus
is not a myth, it is true!
Of this, you can be certain!

A strong emphasis on Jesus' compassion for the marginalized.

LUKE 7:34

The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, “Look, a man who is a glutton and a [heavy] wine-drinker, a friend of tax collectors and sinners.

Theme: A strong emphasis on Jesus' compassion for the marginalized.

Question: Is there room at my table for “those” people?

Theme: An emphasis on prayer and the Holy Spirit.

Theme: An emphasis on
prayer and the Holy Spirit.

Question: Lord, what are You teaching me about prayer and the Holy Spirit?

Theme: Joy and salvation
for the whole world.
