“Why do you call me
‘Lord, Lord,’ and not do what I tell you?”

God wants His power and authority to cause us to:

- Love our enemies

God wants His power and authority to cause us to:

- Love our enemies
- Do good to those who hate us

God wants His power and authority to cause us to:

- Love our enemies
- Do good to those who hate us
- Bless the people who curse us and pray for the people who mistreat us

God wants His power and authority to cause us to:

- Love our enemies
- Do good to those who hate us
- Bless the people who curse us and pray for the people who mistreat us
- Turn the other cheek when struck

God wants His power and authority to cause us to:

- Love our enemies
- Do good to those who hate us
- Bless the people who curse us and pray for the people who mistreat us
- Turn the other cheek when struck
- Give to people who ask, and don't demand what is taken from us

Calling Jesus Lord is only as meaningful as our willingness to actually obey Him.
